MODERN HERITAGE

ABOUT US

Novelty and Opportunities

It's 2024, and everyone's looking for something new, something unexpected. Vietnam is that breath of fresh air—the perfect blend of the uncharted and the extraordinary. Unlike some destinations that have become too polished, too predictable, for the traveler who craves the thrill of the unknown, Vietnam still retains that sense of discovery.

Culture and Economy's Renaissance

Fifty years ago, Vietnam was defined by its past. Today, it's a country that has redefined itself as one of transformation—unprecedented economic growth, world-class entertainment, and modern amenities at every turn. Vietnam has mastered the art of offering top-tier experiences without the inflated price tag, where luxury is no longer about exclusivity but about accessibility.

Evergreen Nature Beauty

For the explorer, there's nothing quite like the diversity of Vietnam's landscapes. With one of the longest coastlines in Southeast Asia, eight UNESCO Heritage sites, and ecosystems that stretch across 15 degrees of latitude, the country is a treasure trove of natural beauty. Want a beachfront celebration? Check. Craving mountain vistas? Check. Fancy a cruise amidst stunning bay views? Double-check. Vietnam is a canvas waiting for you to paint your travel dreams on, whether you're an adventurer, a sun-worshipper, or a culture enthusiast.

Gastronomic Haven

Imagine returning from vacation feeling healthier than when you left. With a rich culinary tradition cherished by food lovers around the world, and now proudly earning a spot on the Michelin map, Vietnam's food scene is a masterful blend of flavors, textures, and aromas. But it's not just about taste—Vietnamese cuisine places a strong emphasis on health and wellness. It's about using food as medicine, a philosophy that ensures every bite not only delights the senses but also nourishes the body.

Modern Heritage is your gateway to a Vietnam that is redefining itself while staying true to its roots, offering the finest experiences in the shortest of time.

Discover Hanoi's Charm, One Ride at a Time

Hanoi, once the cradle of ancient Vietnam's rich history, now carries the weight of time with a certain elegance, where modernity brushes softly against the faded grandeur of a bygone era. Hanoi is to Vietnam what Paris is to France, not only in its aesthetic grace but in the wistful beauty of a place that remembers.

The way of living in Hanoi reflects a city that has learned to adapt, yet still clings to its heritage with a quiet resilience, as if holding on to memories that refuse to fade. In the same corner of the city's most luxurious hotel, from the morning street exercise group to the late-night dimmed speakeasy bar, the city never sleeps.

HIGHLIGHTS

Morning:

Tricycle ride for Art tour & Gift shopping

Start your day with a tricycle ride touring Hanoi Old Quarter and to the Vietnam Fine Arts Museum is one of the most important museums in preserving the cultural and artistic heritage of all ethnic communities in Vietnam—a story of the country's little-known ethnic diversity.

Lunch at the restaurant belonging to the family of culinary artist Anh Tuyet, who preserves the essence of authentic Hanoi cuisine. They have had the honor of serving numerous heads of state, friends, and domestic and international travelers.

Afternoon:

City tour by Military vehicles

In the afternoon, the jeep will pick you up from the hotel for a 120-minute tour covering six iconic attractions around the city, including the White Horse Holy Temple, Thang Long Citadel, Long Bien Bridge, West Lake Temple, an ancient Chinese communal house, and the Opera House.

You will return to the hotel to enjoy some well-deserved leisure time to relax at your own pace before heading out for dinner.

Evening:

A stroll in the Old Quarter

Indulge in a culinary masterpiece at Chapter Dining & Grill – a sophisticated dining haven with a seasonal menu, lauded by Michelin and loved by many gastronomic adventurers.

Conclude your evening at an exclusive, hidden bar tucked beneath the iconic Cathedral Church, where a curated flight of premium whiskeys awaits, accompanied by the timeless melodies of nostalgic vinyl records spun from their cherished collection.

ACCOMMODATION

Metropole Hanoi

 15 P. Ngo Quyen, Street, Hoan Kiem, Hanoi 100000

Nestled in the heart of Hanoi's historic French Quarter, the Sofitel Legend Metropole Hanoi boasts an enviable location, offering guests convenient access to the city's most iconic landmarks, including Hoan Kiem Lake and the French Old Quarter, just steps away. This storied establishment, where Charlie Chaplin spent his honeymoon in 1936, captures the essence of Hanoi's rich cultural tapestry, blending French colonial elegance with Vietnamese charm. Whether for leisure or business, the Metropole Hanoi provides a unique window into the city's seamless fusion of history and modernity, all from a location that places the best of Hanoi right at your doorstep.

Guardians of the Northern Rice Terraces

Mu Cang Chai is home to some of Asia's most magnificent cultivated topography. And it is one of the best places in Vietnam to take on the roads. You'll find quality strips of tarmac that weave around oval hills and sky-high dirt tracks that cling to near-vertical cliff faces. Whether you want a gentle ride following trickling rivers or an adrenaline-filled dirt bike experience, Mu Cang Chai provides the stage.

Notable main roads include the magnificent stretch between Mu Cang Chai town and Tu Le via the Khau Pha mountain pass - named top passes to visit when in Vietnam. For 6 hour, you will experience a gentle ride through ethnic Thai villages on a mostly paved road.

Royal Past to Modern Present

Hue

is a city brimming with tales waiting to be discovered. Once the feudal capital of the Nguyen Dynasty, it was established along the lush riverbanks and scenic hills, but the imperial history is merely one of the many attractions. The city is renowned for its exquisite cuisine, and its verdant streets are adorned with ancient pagodas, stunning art déco buildings, and vibrant markets. The Perfume River meanders through this picturesque landscape, creating a relaxed atmosphere that the entire city embraces.

Da Nang

is a vibrant city that boasts expansive beaches, delectable street food, the legendary Hai Van Pass, and an ever-expanding array of cafes, restaurants, and bars. It's easy to see why the locals wear some of the biggest smiles in the nation. The inviting sands of My Khe Beach stretch gracefully from the stunning Son Tra Peninsula. While Da Nang is home to some of Vietnam's finest luxury resorts, the beach remains a cherished space for the community, serving as their playground, fitness center, and livelihood.
